

Sending Christmas greetings across the globe has become a touchy matter. We believe we have finally solved that challenge in a culturally sensitive manner.

On that wooden tree, one reads words of appeal to all good people everywhere -- words like hope, friendship, respect, care, patience, justice, love, harmony and more!

Enjoy the holidays (in whichever date they may fall in your home culture).

Seen in Zahara, Andalusia, Spain.